

SAWHA Volunteer Code of Conduct

Each volunteer understands and agrees to the following:

- Each volunteer shall sign up for their own individual shift that they will be working for during any particular SAWHA hosted event. Team reps or other individuals are not permitted to sign up individuals other than themselves.
- Volunteers that are signed up for a particular shift are responsible for that shift. Please remember that it is not the responsibility of the Director in charge of the SAWHA hosted event to find a replacement for your shift it is your responsibility to find a replacement.
- There are NO splitting shifts for any SAWHA hosted events unless designated by and authorized by the SAWHA Director in charge of the event. If this occurs, without prior authorization from the SAWHA Director in charge of the event, the volunteer will be asked to leave the event for not supplying a volunteer for the entire shift of the SAWHA event.
- Volunteers are asked to attend SAWHA hosted events with a positive attitude and appropriately dressed. Please remember that SAWHA and all its volunteers are in the public eye and therefore all Directors and SAWHA members are a reflection on the league itself.
- Volunteers are not permitted to bring any children to any SAWHA hosted events if they are scheduled to be working a volunteer shift.
- Volunteers are not permitted to bring any pets to any SAWHA hosted events if they are scheduled to be working a volunteer shift.
- Volunteers are not permitted to bring any friends or additional people to any SAWHA hosted events if they are scheduled to be working a volunteer shift.
- Volunteers are asked to remain at their designated volunteer jobs when volunteering for any SAWHA hosted events. Please no wandering around when you are supposed to be working at a particular job task.

I understand the terms above and accept personal responsibility for conducting myself accordingly. Failure to abide as deemed by the SAWHA Board will result in being removed from a particular SAWHA hosted event and a possible fine to my particular team.
